Dear Burt:

Your employee [redacted] departed from Headquarters on schedule 23 May 1957 and should have arrived at the first point to be visited the day following at approximately 1400. The same arrangements with respect to cashing checks were made for this individual as were made for [redacted]. The maximum amount of checks to be cashed for him each month will not total more than $500.00 except in the event of an emergency, in which case we should promptly communicate with you.

25X1A

Inasmuch as the handling of these individuals are for another segment of the Organization and since the close of the current Fiscal Year is close at hand, I shall appreciate a cost breakdown on a man-month basis for the three individuals mentioned herein similar to the type furnished for technical representatives employed under Contract No. A-103. Upon receipt of the cost breakdown it is anticipated that a supplement to Contract No. A-103 will be executed in order that Ramo-Wouldridge may receive remuneration for services rendered by these three employees.

As you are aware, the transportation and per diem pertaining to each of these individuals will be settled directly with the employee by the undersigned, and this type of cost projection should not appear in the figures furnished.

Very truly yours,

Distribution:

Doug
